

The Chatham-Kent Police Service is pleased to formally introduce its new Community SMARTS mascot,

CONSTABLE COURAGE

On October 5, 2009 the Chatham-Kent Police Service launched its new website. At that time, we issued a challenge to children in Chatham-Kent. We opened to contest to name our Community SMARTS mascot. After almost two months and over 100 name submissions, Chief Dennis Poole selected the winning name.

The winner is Brooke Goodall, age 8, of Chatham. Congratulations Brooke!

Constable Courage is on Patrol in Chatham-Kent
Check out our video on the home page!