

ONTARIO PROVINCIAL POLICE CONSTABLE VU PHAM

On Monday March 8, 2010 the Ontario Provincial Police reported that 37-year-old Constable Vu Pham from Huron County OPP passed away as a result of a gun shot injury sustained in the line of duty while responding to an occurrence at approximately 10:18 a.m.

The incident began as a result of OPP officers responding to a call for service on North Line, Huron County which is just north of Seaforth, Ontario. At that time, Constable Pham, a 15-year member of the OPP attempted to stop a vehicle and was confronted by an armed suspect. During the confrontation, Constable Pham was critically shot and incapacitated. OPP officers in close proximity of the scene located and confronted the suspect who was shot during the incident.

Information regarding funeral arrangements will be forthcoming by the OPP at a later time.

Members of the Chatham-Kent Police Service offer their support and condolences to Constable Pham's family, friends, and members of the Ontario Provincial Police.
